

Scrappy Perez

March 18, 2012 - October 17, 2025

Scrappy ("Kangaroo") Perez was born on March 18, 2012; and passed on October 17, 2025. He is survived by his pet parents: Jennifer Perez, Adolfo Perez, and Adam Andrade.

Scrappy's favorite toy was his hedgehog stuffed animal. His favorite activities were running back and forth and hearing his nails scratch the carpet. His least favorite thing was meeting new people. His favorite place to sleep was in our bed, anything that was heated, laundry and warm blankets.

Favorite Memories of Scrappy: My favorite memory is when we would play dog noises on the phone for him to hear, and he would tilt his head so funny that it would make us laugh, and when we would sing him a song he would howl so loud like a wolf.

Scrappy was more than just a dog. He was there during my darkest moments, like when I lost someone very close to me. He comforted me when I woke up crying at night and was my protector when I felt scared. Whenever I had meat to eat, he would sit quietly, waiting for my glance so he could give me those big eyes that seemed to ask for a piece of my food. Despite his small size, his growl and confidence were as large as his heart. He shared 13 wonderful years with us, always attentive and obedient without needing professional training—he was truly part of our family. We will miss him deeply.

“Scrappy I hope you’re with Looney & you guys catch up on what you both missed out on each other, I will see you when it’s my time to go, I promise.”

"I love you my kangaroo, who’s a good boy.”
