Slade Wise-Sherwood

Slade's birthday is unknown and he died on November 14, 2018. We estimate he was around 13 years old. We have had him in our family since he was a puppy. He started out with Shane and Tabitha Wise and siblings, Chandler and Camryn Wise. He then went to MaMaw and Papaw Wise's house before ending up with his parents, (sometime in 2010), Jason and Tiffany Sherwood and sister, Kateri Sherwood. He lost his pet sister, Mystic Sherwood in November 2016.

Slade had many nicknames: puppy dog, white devil, squirt, the buddy, scary cat, and the little one. Slade did not like toys, but he loved to go on jeep ride with his dad, he loved to look out the window and laying on the back of the chairs or couch so he could see everything. He also loved to be carried around and to sit on his mom's lap. He hated to be left home alone and to get groomed or get a bath. He also didn't like other dogs and would bark at them. He barked at everything, (cars and people too). He was happy to meet his nephew, Winston Sherwood, before he had to leave us.

Slade loved to sleep under the blankets right beside his dad and he also always woke his dad up when he needed to go out to potty or get a drink of water during the night. Slade loved wet dog food and any people food. We love and miss him so much. He is with Mystic now in heaven waiting for us.

We will see him again someday.

We love you Slade, Always
