

Thunder Seiler

April 13, 2014 - December 9, 2024

On April 13th, 2014, our cat Thunder was born to a litter of six kittens. Beforehand, we had taken in a female cat from the woods to find out she was pregnant. Upon birth, we decided to home the six kittens until we ultimately chose to keep two of them along with their mother, Moonlight. My mother chose Olaf, and I chose the ragdoll cat at first, who we named Fluffy, but ultimately chose the only black cat in the litter, Thunder. Ever since that day, my life has been blessed. This simple, "unlucky," black cat, instantly became my best friend. I was blessed with a long ten years with him, and they were the greatest years of my life. Throughout this time, he got to meet everyone my family and I cared about, and showed them endless love and affection. In our house, he was always known as the social and friendly cat. I like to think that we were especially close because every time I'd eat at our kitchen counter, he'd jump up on the seat next to me and crawl onto my lap. He wasn't allowed to sleep in my room at night because he would try to chew or play with anything he could reach, so he opted to sleep right outside my door instead. Whenever I'd go in the bathroom to get ready, he'd restlessly paw on the door, almost as a form of knocking, just so I would let him in so he could be with me. One of my favorite things about him was his party tricks. Anytime I'd pick Thunder up, he wouldn't just let me cradle him, but instead, he'd insist on climbing up to look over my shoulder; to which I always let him. After he'd make his way to the top, I'd begin to bend to permit him to climb onto my back where he would just walk around. We always joked he'd be a good America's Got Talent cat. There aren't words to describe the kind of pet Thunder was to me and my family. He always showed kindness to everyone he met, no matter what. On December 9th, 2024, your vessel passed, however, your memory will live eternally in us. We couldn't have asked for a more polite cat, and we all miss you Thunder.
