

Tugg Wheeler

December 22, 2022

My sweetest boy, Tugg, crossed the Rainbow Bridge Thursday, December 22, 2022 at the way-too-young-age of 6. Having developed Lymphoma, he gained his wings before the disease could take his spark away.

Tugg is survived by his heartbroken mom, Tristy, two-legged sisters Ryan and Reese, 4-legged brothers Cat and Kilo, as well as his favorite grandma and aunt and uncle.

Tugg (aka Tuggle, Tugglepuss, T.P., Tuggie) was oblivious that he was not a human. His human-like eyes provided constant watch, making sure momma was always in his sight. He was the best cuddler and loved his momma like no other. Whether he was dripping with the famous Boxer bubbles, providing comfort in the form of a 60lb blanket, sharing his words of wisdom or snoring like a 300lb man, Tugg was always a source of entertainment and unconditional love.

Most interested in what his people were doing, especially if that involved pepperoni pizza, Tugg was always up for an adventure, and always willing to be involved in whatever was going on. Some of his favorite adventures were going to visit Gramma, Pup-cups with Reese, laying in the sun with Ryan and catching the water as it sprayed from the hose.

Tugglepuss will be forever missed. There will never be another pup that filled my heart the way Tugg did. He was my rock when I needed him, and selflessly gave me all the love he had to give. I'll miss your Cheeto-smelling paws, your wiggle-butt dance, and seeing your smile every day. I know you are in a better place, but that makes this place gray. Until we meet again my sweet boy...

Tribute Wall

“ Diane Combs Cramer lit a candle in memory of Tugg Wheeler ”

Diane Combs Cramer - February 23, 2023 at 02:07 PM

“ 1 file added to the album Tugg Wheeler ”

Loyal and True - February 22, 2023 at 10:33 AM