

Tundra Partington-Wilson

October 31, 2019 - November 18, 2021

Tundra Partington-Wilson crossed the rainbow bridge unexpectedly on November 18th 2021.

Tundra was born on October 31st 2019, he came into our lives in August of 2020.

He is survived by his pet parents Robert Partington and Debra Wilson; his siblings Damon Partington and Sierria Wilson; his grandparents Homer and Lisa Wyant; and his pack, his older lil brother Halfpint, his wife Kheoni, and his children Titan and Athena; and his favorite neighbor Eric.

Tundra loved his family and loved just laying around the house with his pack. His favorite toys were ropes, squeaky toys and balls. His favorite activities were playing tug of war with Athena, Zoomies thru the house and he loved going outside in the snow. His favorite place to sleep was the couch and dad and moms bed. His favorite food was cornbread.

Favorite memories of Tundra were him stealing his dads cornbread and snuggling his human siblings and he loved his naps with momma and he loved visitors always had to be the center of attention when visitors were over. We love you Tundra and we will see you on the other side you wont be forgotten until we meet again.
